Welcome

DeKalb for Seniors Inc.

Welcome to the Theresa Walker Seniors of the Year Awards Luncheon

DeKalb for Seniors is proud to celebrate the nominees at this year's luncheon by honoring influential Seniors who are community-builders in DeKalb County.

Now in its 20th year, DeKalb For Seniors, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Lou Walker Senior Center with the aim of assisting the center in fulfilling its mission for seniors in DeKalb County. DFSI is comprised of a volunteer board of directors who provide support and advice to generate necessary resources. Our goal is to advocate for seniors and the center while assisting in programming and funding for items not covered by the center's budget.

Congratulations to the nominees of the 2023 Theresa Walker

Senior of the Year Award.

The Lou Walker Senior Center

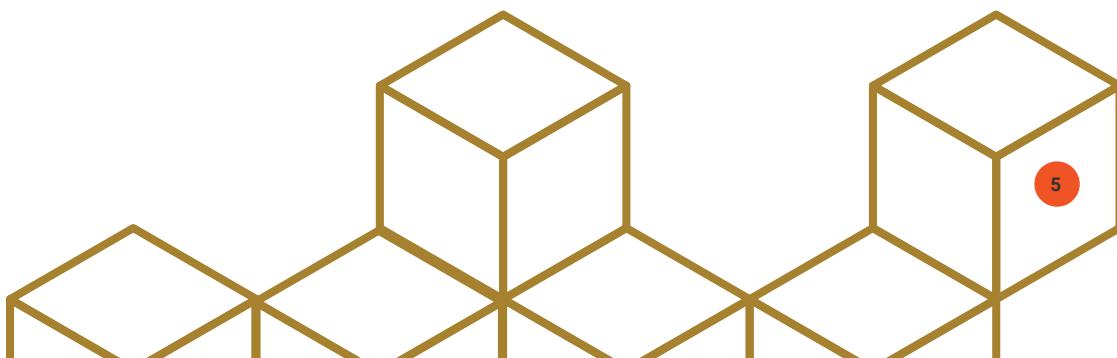

You are always welcome at the Lou Walker Senior Center! The Lou Walker Senior Center was created for active older adults who are 55+ and reside in DeKalb County, Georgia.

VISION

- To create a “senior-friendly” community where seniors are valued and respected.
- All sectors of the community come together to meet the needs of seniors.
- Seniors have the opportunity to serve and be served.
- Seniors live healthy lifestyles with a focus on prevention.
- The community has easy access to information and services.
- Seniors have access to efficient, coordinated and comprehensive services that enhance their quality of life.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Lou Walker Senior Center is to maximize independence and enhance the quality of life for the growing number of seniors in the community through serving as a focal point for information and services. To work together to deliver a “world class” program of services with emphasis on integrity, fairness, open communication and accessibility.

May 20, 2023

Congratulations to this fantastic group of DeKalb County senior citizens who continue to pave the way for our community through their civic involvement. As you will hear, many say they are retired but folks like this never really retire. The call to be a servant leader stays with you no matter your age and the work continues as well.

Thank you to everyone who supported our Theresa Walker Senior of the Year Awards Luncheon. It is so good to come together once again and fellowship and celebrate. The last few years were hard, but we are still moving forward and excited about the future.

Thank you all for your support during those years when the center was closed. A lot didn't happen, but the things that we did do were able to be held because of your continued support. Many people didn't realize how important the center was in their lives and gathering – even if it was outside for a few hours – made a world of difference.

We need your continued support and thank you in advance. We are excited about the future of the Lou Walker Senior Center and consider it an honor to be able to support it and we look forward to many more exciting events and activities.

In Service,

Donna Dees

Theresa Sheridan Walker

Theresa Walker was born Theresa Sheridan on March 19, 1945 in Chicago. She graduated from Tolleston High School in Gary, Indiana where she played the flute in the concert band and participated in several clubs. After attending Ball State University in Indiana and working for a time with Gary Public Schools, she married Louis Walker in 1976 and moved to Atlanta. Together they raised four children: three sons and one daughter.

After working in public relations for a handful of Atlanta businesses, Walker and her husband set out on their own business endeavor. They founded Paragon Productions, a public relations firm, in the late 1980s.

In 1997, she and her husband cofounded the Georgia Black Chamber of Commerce, intent on building connections within the African-American business community. They dabbled in a few other business ventures throughout the years.

The Lou Walker Senior Center, which opened in 2005, was her husband's dream but Theresa Walker made it a reality after his death in 2004. It was her proudest accomplishment. She had long worked to improve the lives of seniors and her advocacy efforts only increased into her retirement and later years.

Mrs. Walker served on the DeKalb For Seniors Board of Directors for several years and was instrumental in many of the major fundraisers and activities. In October of 2013 Mrs. Walker passed away from cancer. In honor of her memory, DeKalb For Seniors renamed the Senior of the Year Silver Awards Gala to the Theresa Walker Senior of the Year Awards Luncheon.

Dear DeKalb For Seniors, Inc:

DeKalb for Seniors, Inc. (DFSI), has been a profound advocate for the seniors of the Lou Walker Senior Center as well as seniors all over DeKalb County, since its inception. As our fundraising arm, you continue to support the various programs offered here at the Lou Walker Senior Center (LWSC) through your fundraising efforts, as well as giving of your time.

The formation of the Caregivers Resource Network by DFSI, has filled a void in our community. The Human Services grant has provided a very inimitable opportunity to support our seniors that are caregivers. During the COVID-19 Pandemic, DFSI continued the collaborative work with LWSC Social Workers to facilitate monthly virtual group support meetings, which provide an avenue for caregivers to share their feelings, concerns, and experiences with other caregivers. Through seminars, workshops and caregiver conferences, seniors learn about available resources including respite care, and receive tips on how to improve what they do while also caring for themselves.

DFSI has provided tremendous leadership while working hand-in-hand with our community partners to bring this Caregivers Resource Network to life. We look forward to the expansion of the program, as we help the seniors to lessen the burden of caregiving and encourage greater self-care.

The Lou Walker Senior Center supports DFSI's humanitarian effort to raise additional funds, to elevate this program. We are excited about the next phase of the program, which promotes the quality of life, independence, dignity, and overall health of all the DeKalb seniors especially this underserved population of seniors.

Sincerely,

Ericia King

Ericia King, LWSC Director

Annette Hill Mistress of Ceremonies

Annette is a gifted facilitator, speaker and events organizer. As the owner of HSI Events she provided professional direction and oversight since 1992. She is a retired Federal Program Manager who worked for 34 years at various levels of responsibility with the Environmental Protection Agency. She has always volunteered in her community to add value to important causes such as Salem Bible Church, Gresham Park, Spelman College, the Dekalb Public Library and the Lou Walker Senior Center. She is well known in our community for her wit, passion, and unique ability to excite and engage diverse audiences.

Annette has earned several awards from the Environmental Protection Agency, the National Alumnae Association of Spelman College, Dekalb Parks and Recreation and Salem Bible Church. Annette is married and has two grown children and three wonderful grandchildren. Her retirement days are spent preparing Sunday School lessons and Wednesday night classes for the SBC Small Groups Ministry. She also finds time to include line dancing, ZUM-BA, Bid Whist and her favorite, traveling as often as possible.
